Foreword

Dear Readers,

Another year has come to an end. Many friends, activities, and clubs are soon forgotten unless we have a book in which these things are kept.

To the Seniors it means the end of their happy school days. They will always cherish these years as time passes and remember with pride those hours spent at Griffith High School.

To the peppy Juniors it will be a reminder of their outstanding ability as athletes.

To the Sophomores it will no doubt give them prestige in knowing that they have been splendid in their cooperation; have furnished the greatest number of band members; and were the largest class.

To the studious Freshmen it will recall with a great degree of pride that all three winners in the State Solo Music Contest were Freshmen.

DEDICATION

To the principles of democracy and to the spirit of Americans who place the love of God and Country above all personal gains, we, the staff, dedicate the 1941-42 Reflector.

CLASS OFFICERS

HAROLD MACK, President
ELEANOR BEATY, Vice President
DORIE SCOTT, Secretary
CLIFFORD LONG, Treasurer

Seated with Mr. Beck

The Sophomore Class has been given distinction from the Basketball boys of G.H.S. as the first team composed entirely of sophomore boys, had a very successful year. Also one of the Sophomores boys Harold Mack, has proved himself capable of making the varsity team—playing with the first five and winning honors for his all round personality and ability to play basketball.

Just before the first semester ended the Sophomores had a party which proved very successful.

The class has planned and provided a way by which the students can save their money in defraying expenses and funds. Hopes are still high for a trip to Washington, D. C. during the classes senior year.

In addition to the regular ten Student Council members, there are four special committees. These committees work out the problems that arise in their individual fields of activity. Mrs. Faulkenburg has charge of the Home Room Committee. This group has developed a method of grading Home Room programs. Mr. Beck's Social Committee makes out the school calendar.

The Safety Council helped to make the school safer by placing hail guards at certain places. Mr. Wilson heads the Safety Council. Mr. Pingry advises the Activity Committee. Their duty is to record the activities of the students and to help award letters to those who have participated in enough activities to have earned fifty points.

Library Girls Collected Books for the Soldiers in Our Army Camps

The purpose of the Library Club is to get girls interested in library work. Miss Moelhan, school librarian, is sponsor of the club.

Every two weeks the girls published a bulletin for teachers. It contained lists of new books, special days and holidays, poems, quotations, and educational radio programs.

Some of the girls clean the library after school, others help to check out books.

Members of two years' standing receive club letters at Honor Day Convocation.

On April 24, together with the Sophomore Class, they presented a special convocation to collect books for men in our Army and Navy camps. John Packam, known as 'the Hoosier Poet', was guest speaker. The books collected were given to the USO for distribution.

The Senior Play Was a Great Success.

On Friday, March 27, 1942, the Senior Class presented "The Ghost Parade," directed by Mr. Wilson.

The play is centered around an old hotel which is inherited by young Anne Watkins. When pretty Anne and her wisecracking girl friend, Mamie Rose Callahan, arrive, they find the place full of ghosts instead of guests. However, before they have much time to worry, two handsome young actors, Aleck Smart and Ted Lewis, seem more than willing to help.

Before the second act closes, mystery surrounds the place. Why does someone want to drive Anne away? What has become of the map that located the hidden treasure?

In the third act the ghosts start parading. Gruesome, sheeted figures prow the hotel halls at night, while outside an ominous storm is brewing. Lights turn off and on; there are screams and shots in the dark. Poor Rastus is about overcome with the "hants" and the weird appearance of the bat-like man.

After three dizzy acts everything turns out happily and romantically. There wasn't a ghost parade, but there was a promise of two wedding marches.

"The Young Imp" Selected as Junior Play.

Neddie Page has made a wager with Tommy Ross, his college chum, that he cannot enter the apartment of Neddie's two spinster aunts, the Tilden Sisters. Tommy believes that he can.

In order to carry out his plan, Tommy disguises himself as a girl, and enters the apartment with the help of Miss Heartsease. Meanwhile, Armanda falls in love with Brother Wheeler of the Foreign Mission Society, who is in reality a crook trying to get the Tilden Sisters' money.

After an embarrassing and trying situation, Brother Wheeler is discovered. Tommy's father is found to be Neddie's long lost sweetheart. All ends well as Armanda consents to Neddie's marriage to Jonathon, even though her own heart has been broken.

If you have ever seen a man dressed as a woman, you will have a good idea of the comical sight that met the audience's eyes when they saw the "Young Imp."

19	Hobart	0
22	Catholic Central	7
0	Morocco	31
19	Plymouth	51

The 1941 Panther Football team, under the tutelage of Coach "Chuck" Armon, completed the most successful football season in the history of Griffith High School. The outcomes of the games are related by the scores which brought victory or defeat. The 6-0 victory over Valparaiso will long be remembered by the boys who fought to the end for victory, and by the Panther fans who witnessed that lateral pass thrown by Harold Mack to Bob Parsons late in the third quarter.

The following Friday brought a 19-0 victory over St. Marys of Michigan City. With their backs to the wall during the entire first quarter and the continual crashing of the St. Marys backfield, the Panthers weathered the ordeal and returned to steal the honors in the remaining quarters. Harold Mack, Duane Windell and Richard McDonald scored the touchdowns. In victory or defeat, the boys played hard to win.

Lowell triumphed 28-14.

Hobart defeated our boys twice by scores of 20-0 and 19-0.

Two more victories were registered over Morocco 31-0 and Plymouth 51-19. The Panther victory over Plymouth was one for the ancestors of G. H. S. The boys did a fine job in redeeming some of the hard knocks that were delivered to our gridiron heroes.

Coach Armon hopes to continue the period of redemption next year, since the squad will only lose three boys: Joe Spitz and Warren Peters, co-captains, and all-conference guards and center respectively. Ray Harper, who was elected tackle on the second all-conference team, will graduate also.

Duane Windell established himself as one of the outstanding backfield men in the conference. He tied the Little Five scoring record with 60 points.

Next year the team will be led by Gordon Mack and Nick Vracin.

When asked about the possibilities of next year's team, Coach Armon stated, "If we stay as one, work as one, and have a unified determination, we will win our share of games."

A Fine Season

Our Cheer Leaders

Never daunted in spirit these four girls by their fine cheerleading kept the hopes of Griffith fans high even during the few times Griffith was on the losing side.

Williams, Davis, Hendrickson, Nisle

The Griffith cage squad terminated another successful season in 1941-42, led by our coach Richard Beck.

Out of twenty-three games including tournaments, there were seven wins for the Panthers.

One of the outstanding highlights of this team was the holding of first place in the Lake Five Conference, which is composed of eight teams including most of the smaller schools in Lake and Porter Counties. They also captured the annual basketball classic at Crown Point. It was Griffith who tied with Hobart for first place in the Little Five Conference.

Lettermen's Club

The Lettermen's Club has had a very successful year. Led by their active president, Joe Spitz, the club was particularly successful in a financial way. The club made over $300 to be used for athletic purposes. The purchasing of letters, sweaters, and insurance, were among the projects sponsored by this club.

G.A.A. Girls Gave "Anchors Aweigh" Dance May 1

The girls in the G. A. A. participated in a Girls Intramural Basketball Tournament. The Junior girls proved themselves the champions.

To complete the year the annual dance was given. A clever nautical theme was carried out through the decorations.

Class History

SENIOR CLASS OFFICERS

Wells, treasurer
Hendrickson secretary
Nisle, vice president
Slocum president

After about a month's years of preparation, the senior class finally took over the old Grady High School and immediately began plans for a ship to take them through their initiation. They had passed the age of Dignified Seniors. With Peter Phillips as the Contractor they were able to start a grand plan. After one year of planning and when those freshmen found that we had left it but the freshmen had been where they had left off two years before. This year with the aid of Harry Hendrickson, our treasurer and Cecelia Kral and Alzada Mikuta keeping the accounts straight we successfully completed the ship. As the summer vacation rolled around, we found that eight builders had left us during the summer vacation.

The second deck began construction under the able hands of George Slocum, our ship builder. With George Slocum as his assistant and with Charles Wells and Pete Phillips as the carpenters we were soon accustomed to the loss of five of our members, and the fifty-six of us who were soon to be initiated. After one year of planning and when those freshmen found that we had left it but the freshmen had been where they had left off two years before. This year with the aid of Harry Hendrickson, our treasurer and Cecelia Kral and Alzada Mikuta keeping the accounts straight we successfully completed the ship. As the summer vacation rolled around, we found that eight builders had left us during the summer vacation.

As we returned to G.H.S. we found no trace of the former Seniors, but we found ourselves in their places. Two builders had left us but the fifty-four members of our Senior Class were still there. We had the much needed final coat of paint to our ship and shined up the brass for the vintage was done to better. We elected George Slocum one of our outstanding basketball heroes, as our Admiral.

Dorothy Nisle, our cheerleader and Prom Queen, was voted Captain and with Evelyn Hendrickson, our cheerleader, and Charles Wells, our musician, to raise our lowest morale after the news of our enemy's attack on Pearl Harbor on December 7. We set our motto: "This Day is the Day of the Brave" before us. After accepting the farewells of the juniors at their beautiful Senior Prom, we said our early good-byes to Mr. Swain, Mrs. Cook, Miss Wright, Miss Shagley, Miss Moehlman and Miss Anderson. Our final Good-bye but to Mr. Pingry, who served us so faithfully during our last months here and twenty years, we bid a tearful and sad-hearted Adieu—for he is truly a friend. As we turned back to school and kindly teachers, who stood by us in our four years of toil, we felt a lump in our throats as the ship set sail. We the gallant Seniors were leaving G.H.S. to guide our ship through the calm and rough seas of life.

1941 PROM QUEEN AND COURT

Dorothy Nisle was chosen Prom Queen. The Attendants were Connie Gavett, Dorothy Woods, and Jeane Davis.

Class Prophecy

'Sees all, hears all, tells all,
That was the sign on the door,
In we went to pay a call
On the Swami and his crystal ball.

Ah," said he, "all is smoke,
But now from off afar
I can see the cause of it all,
Reverend Harper and his cigar.

The nurses, Lorraine and Eileen, salute,
Fair who should be passing by
But lieutenants Hansen and Mang
For whom the patients die.

Daring aviators, Phillips and Peters,
Are home with medals galore,
But Warren to Evelyn and Pete to Harriet
Vow they will roam no more.

Little Joe is on his soap box
Giving his campaign talk
But the only one who hears it
Is Big Joe sweeping the walk.

Alzada and Thelma are ministers' wives,
While Jeanette and Jennie have married
Harolds Wilson and Laird respectively
Whom the tax collectors have harried.

Across from Keith Long's funeral home
Cep Randhan is walking his beat
Corporal Zype is being interviewed
By George Slocum, the man on the street.

Phyllis and Mildred sing with a band
The band Wells and Haycock lead.
Marie and Carolyn are in school
I mean—teaching the little ones to read.

While husband, Dan DeWitt is sick
Poor Rosa has her woes
Trying to meet the mortgage
Banker Fister will foreclose.

Our two Johns are both in the game
CARRYING girls' hearts—a shame,
And Cecy was long ago married
Remember when she got her ring!

Norris is Bill's private secretary
But he's a big business man,
Maurice's a New York street barker
And Nick for town marshal ran.

Doctors Ziser and Kewyer put people to sleep,
Frances pulls on their hair,
And Massa is indeed helping the "yanks"
Not in the war—the dentist chair.

Eddie works as a newsboy
While Fred struts in the park
But Frieda and Bernice are industrious indeed
Fixing housewives' lives are their task.

Now I see Kewie watching at Gracie's
Happy Clarence and Nellie watching that game
Dorothy Woods and Williams each have twins
But actress Gwynne wants no man but fame.

Seenie is a New York model
And Dee Nade the voice on the air
Which gives the pep talk to kiddies
On "Why they should always play square.

Then we saw Mary Ruth and me
On a ship as the pictures ended
And sincerely I hope this prophecy
No senior will have defended.

Griffith High School

Rev. Roscoe Haycock, Evg.

STUDY! WHY? For 12 long years, and yet they have been very Short Years. All you could hear and all you did was STUDY! STUDY!! STUDY!!! WHAT FOR? WHY? "TO PROVE"! This day you prove to your parents, prove to your friends, prove to your teachers, prove to your School Board, prove to the Whole World yes for 12 years you have studied and you now show yourself approved unto GOD a workman needing not to be ashamed. May you use this as a stepping stone to larger, greater, worthwhile undertakings throughout life.
